A BIG CHANGE

Brian lives in a beautiful villa in Spain. He enjoys sailing and buying old paintings; however, his life didn't (1)..... to be so good. Brian used (2) be a dustman. In fact, he was a dustman for 30 years. He (3) get up at five o'clock every morning, and work for eight hours collecting rubbish from the city streets.

Two years (4), on a cold winter morning, Brian's life changed for ever. It was still dark, and a freezing wind (5) blowing along the streets. Brian (6) not mind, though. He was (7) to the cold. At about seven o'clock, he (8) collecting the rubbish from a big old house on Baker street (9) an old bag fell out of the bin. He opened it. It was full of banknotes - thousands of them!

Brian took the bag to the police station but nobody came to collect it. After three months, the police gave the money to Brian. «I love my new life», Brian told us. «But I still haven't (10) used to waking up late. I still get up at five o'clock every morning.»
